Minister to new members:

Will you, new members, honor our covenant to dwell together in peace, to seek the truth in love, and to help one another?
If so, please say "I will."

New member: I will.

Minister to the congregation:

Congregants, as our community grows, do you reaffirm your commitment to the covenant of love and service that binds us together?
If so, please say "We do."

Congregation: We do.

Minister to the congregation:

And will you welcome these new members into our community, strive to dwell with them in peace, support their search for truth with love, and help them when they are in need? If so, please say "I will."

Congregation: I will.

Minister to all:

Let us all remember that our covenant is a promise we make to each other and a practice we strive to live out together. Knowing we can only do this imperfectly, when we falter or fail, what will we do?

All:

When we falter or fail in living our covenant, and we will, we will seek forgiveness. We trust in the love that binds us together to hold our uncertainties, our failures, and our differences.

All Souls Unitarian Church Centennial Vision 2021

Our church is an embodiment and celebration of the world as we hope it will one day become. A climate of profound hospitality, love, and acceptance radiates from our campus and our members. Our sanctuary is bursting with people from a diversity of theologies, philosophies, ethnicities, cultures, classes, abilities, generations, sexual orientations, gender expression, and political persuasions, all dwelling together in peace, seeking the truth in love, and helping one another. Our compassion is reflected in our actions to care for one another, our neighbors, and the environment. Our religious education involves all ages and aims at connecting heads, hearts, and hands.

"Our church is an embodiment and celebration of the world as we hope it will one day become."
