

If you arrive after the bouquet of flowers is placed on the chancel, you're welcome to come forward during one of the hymns and place your flower in the bouquet.

PRELUDE My Mother's Garden —James Southbridge

PROCESSIONAL #21 For the Beauty of the Earth

CALL TO WORSHIP
Now with Creation's morning song, let us, as children of the day with waken'd hearts and purpose strong, have eyes to measure life's array; with guileless minds, and heart sincere, the works of darkness cast away.

INVOCATION

COVENANT
Love is the spirit of this church; and service is its law.
This is our great covenant: to dwell together in peace,
To seek the truth in love, and to help one another.

DOXOLOGY
From all that dwell below the skies, let faith and hope with love arise;
let beauty, truth, and love be sung through every land by every tongue. Amen.

CHILD DEDICATION Margaux Elizabeth Scoggins and Geneva Boston Scoggins
(To be spoken by congregation)
Now we, the people of this church, understanding our solemn obligation to share in the upbringing of these beloved children, do hereby pledge ourselves to promote their welfare, in mind, body, and soul, to the end that they may grow in beauty, love, and truth.

BLESSING OF THE FLOWERS

Infinite Spirit of Life, may this bouquet presented today be a messenger of fellowship and love. May these flowers remind us to cherish diversity in each other as one of life's most precious gifts, while we remain unified and devoted in our work for the greater good.

Remind us to celebrate and honor the life and friendships we have been given in whatever number of days ahead are still ours to claim.

May we not let awareness of another's talents ever discourage us, or diminish our relationships, but may we realize that, whatever we can do, great or small, the efforts of all of us are needed to do the good work in this world.

With our hands and hearts we bless these flowers, the new lives they will now touch and the new homes where they will soon venture.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Mia Wright: Artist in Residence May 2019

Tulsa native Mia Wright is a poet, educator, and mother of one amazing daughter. Everyone is encouraged to participate with Mia's Poetry Prompts and join her throughout the month through her residency programs.

Mia's Poetry Prompt

Think of an object—flower, building, food, anything—that reminds you of your mother. Write four lines describing that object. Then write two final lines connecting the object to your mother.

Congregational Meeting

Sunday, May 19

Following the Traditional service | Emerson Hall

Hear 2018's financial results, capital campaign updates, and vote on new officers and on the ordination of Yadenee Hailu! All voting members of the congregation are encouraged to attend. The minutes and agenda are posted on the Board of Trustees bulletin board.

End-of-Year Celebration & Recognition of Graduates

Sunday, May 19

In Children's Chapel, we will thank our Children's Religious Exploration volunteers and teachers who have led our children in completing their tapestry of faith curricula. Members of our youth program will lead our children to the West Playground for a fun-packed event with popsicles, Jupiter Jump, pizza, and games! In services, we will recognize and honor all graduates throughout our congregation.

Trading Places

Two Sunday Services from Memorial Day to Labor Day!

Starting Sunday, May 26

10:10 a.m. in the Sanctuary & 11:30 a.m. in Emerson Hall

Our Intern Minister Em Kianka will finish her time with us by starting our summer series, Trading Places. This series will take us to places we have never been before!

The Sanctuary service at 10:10 a.m. will be something new. Sneak Peek: Our music directors may preach and our preachers may share some musical talents you didn't know they had! Note: The 10:10 a.m. start time allows for the parking lot to clear and denotes that this is not the usual Traditional Service.

The Point, Humanist Hour in Emerson Hall at 11:30 a.m. will include special guests and unexpected surprises. We hope you will try both services and experience a summer full of love beyond belief!

Ministers
