POSTLUDE

BOARD PRESIDENT:
On behalf of the Board of Trustees, I extend to you, our ninth grade class of 2025, our congratulations on successfully completing the Coming of Age program. To be successful, a church needs good ministers and dedicated members who understand the history and traditions of the congregation and who also know their own values. You carry on a proud tradition among us, and we are very proud of you.

CLASS:
Thank you, and all of our board members and lay-leaders, for your ongoing stewardship of the church.

PARENTS & GUARDIANS:
We witness your Coming of Age with pride in the young individuals you are becoming. We pledge to value your unique perspectives as you continue your search for, and celebration of, the divine.

CLASS:
Thank you for all you have done to support and inspire us in this living tradition.

TEACHERS:
As your teachers, we encouraged you to explore and ask questions. We are honored to hear the answers that have sprung from your hearts. We look forward to you continuing to share your questions and your answers with all of us.

CLASS:
You set a lifelong example for us of how to live lives of service to others. Thank you for your commitment to the future of this free faith.

YOUTH DEPARTMENT REPRESENTATIVES:
A short time ago, we stood in your place. Today we welcome you into the fellowship of Youth, where we will continue to grow in love and service together.

CLASS:
Thank you for opening your hearts and minds to us.

CONGREGATION:
We welcome you into the fellowship of All Souls. We have watched you grow in body, mind, and spirit. We recognize the hard work and reflection that has brought you to this day, and salute your accomplishments. We invite you to join us in our covenant.

CLASS:
We are ready to take on the responsibilities handed down to us— to uphold religious freedom for ourselves and others, to strengthen ourselves spiritually and morally, and to prepare ourselves for the tasks of leadership which lie ahead.

Sponsor chancel flowers!
Reserve your date for 2025. Honor or remember a loved one or celebrate an anniversary, birthday or special occasion.
