Men of All Souls Retreat at 10am

Jan.
10

Explore the double helix of grief and gratitude, connect to self, others, and to that which is larger than us, however you understand that. Using poetry, centering practices, and small groups, we'll slow down, deepen connections, make new friends, and reflect on the deep currents that make up the river of our life. Lunch included!

Register today at allsoulschurch.org/MensRetreat

All Souls Reads at 1:30pm

Jan.
11

There's still time to finish reading An African American and Latinx History of the United States! Join All Souls Reads, a community-led discussion group where we gather in curiosity and explore the human condition, reflecting on how each book speaks to us. You're welcome whether you've finished the book, just started it, or simply want to join in community. Join us on Zoom at allsouls.me/asr.

WCC Returns!

Jan.
14

We're excited to welcome you back to Wednesday Community Connections on January 14, 2026. Dinner begins at 5:30pm (with vegetarian options always available), followed by Chapel at 6:30pm and a variety of classes at 7:00pm. Join us as we joyfully kick off the first WCC evening of 2026!

Building Beloved Community: A UU Leadership Retreat
